DETAILED ACTION

Amendment

1. Acknowledgement is made of Amendment filed 29 August 2003.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. IN THE ABSTRACT:

Replace the Abstract with the following (because "said", on lines 3 and 7, is not permitted):

-- ABSTRACT

A reflection cowl for a bar-code scanner features that the light source wherein is a mono luminous element of light-emitting diode (LED) with a reflection cowl disposed in the rear aspect thereof, the reflection cowl is divided by the center line passed through the light source into a left and a right portions of reflection curved surfaces; respectively, the left and the right portions of the curved surfaces have a plurality of concaved reflection spherical surfaces thereon; all the reflection spherical surfaces have the function of distributing the light so as to make all the light rays reflected back from all the reflection spherical surfaces fall evenly on the convex light stick, thereby adjusting the curvature of the reflection cowl further adjusts the left and the right distribution areas of the reflected light, that means, evenly distributes the brightness at the center and on the side rim thereof --.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-6 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The record of prior art fails to teach a reflection cowl for a bar-code scanner, the scanner comprising at least a light source, a convex light stick, a lens, a sensor element and a circuit board, wherein the reflection cowl is disposed to receive light emitted by the light source; the reflection cowl is divided into left and right portions, the left and right portions having curved reflective surfaces; and the curved reflective surfaces of the left and the right portions of the reflection cowl have a plurality of concave reflection spherical surfaces thereon to distribute the light so as to make the light rays reflected back from all the curved reflection surfaces fall evenly on the convex light stick.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
